1

Declutter and depersonalize

Clear counters, closets and shelves so buyers can picture the space as their own.

2

Tackle the small repairs

Leaky faucets, sticky doors, loose handles and burnt-out bulbs. Little fixes add up.

Deep clean, top to bottom

Windows, floors, baseboards and grout. A fresh, clean home helps it show its best.

4 Boost your curb appeal

Trim the shrubs, sweep the walk and add a fresh doormat. First impressions start outside.

5 Gather your paperwork

Warranties, manuals, permits and receipts for any updates. Having them ready saves time later.
